Instrumentalist Entertains Students

OSSM Students were gifted by the Fine Arts program to a wonderful night of music on Wednesday from performer Stephen Salewon. Mr. Salewon is a multi instrumentalist and singer/songwriter from Oklahoma with a story to tell about the matters of the heart. These tales are woven into soothing melodies influenced by modern pop, folk, and African rhythms.

The concert was held on the east side of the dorms, facing the MAC. There was a reception afterwards with cookies and lemonade. Salewon's music was very jazzy and soothing and got many students dancing and moving out of their seat!
